

No. 3160 of 1904.
Dharwar, 25th May 1904.

From

M. G. Gibb, Esquire, B.L.S., I.C.S., Political Agent, Savanur.

To

The Commissioner, Southern Division,
Belgaum.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith copies of marginally noted ---

- papers, I have
1. Memo showing additional work entailed on the Divan's office. the honour --
 2. Memo of arrears of work to be done to request --
 3. Memo of work of all sorts to be done in the Divan's office. the favour --
 4. Note on the appointment of two candidates of your -----
 5. Proposition statement. kindly moving
- Government to accord their sanction to the entertainment of two paid candidates on Rs 12 each in the Divan's office for reasons given in the --- accompanying copies of memos.

2. Mr. G. Monteth has examined the office of the Divan and is of opinion that the Divan's proposals may be sanctioned and I concur with him. I have satisfied myself that the increase proposed is necessary.

3. It may be stated here that provision for the pay of the two candidates has been made in the budget for 1904-05 which is shortly to be submitted for Government sanction and that therefore no reappropriation statement has been sent.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. G. Gibb

Political Agent, Savanur.

The papers forwarded do not show how long the entertainment of the two candidates is to last. If they are a permanent addition to the Diwan's Establishment, their designation 'candidates' had better be changed to
'Karkuns.'
